Benefits

All the payments under the Policy will be made in Indian rupees and will be subject to prevailing tax laws

C.1 Membership Provisions

An Eligible Member will become an Insured Member only when the Master Policyholder has entered the Member's details into the Membership Register and employer-employee relationship exists between the Master Policyholder and the Member in accordance with the relevant laws.

The Master Policyholder is responsible for maintaining the Membership Register and for ensuring that it is accurate. The Master Policyholder shall intimate the Company any change in the details of the Insured Members and addition/deletion in the Membership Register in any month, within first [7] days of the following calendar month. The Master Policyholder agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from and against any and all losses, costs, expenses, actions or proceedings suffered by the Company in relation to any error or deficiency in or in respect of the Membership Register.

The Company may seek additional information and/or documentation in respect of any Insured Member at any time. If the information and/or documentation for such Insured Member is not received by the Company within [30] days of a request being sent to the Master Policyholder, the name of the Insured Member shall be deemed to have been removed from the Membership Register effective from the date of Our request of such information and/or documentation.

An Insured Member's coverage under the Policy shall immediately and automatically terminate on the occurrence of the first of the following events:

- a) The Coverage Expiry Date
- b) The Insured Member ceases to fulfill any of the eligibility criteria
- c) The Insured Member ceases to be a Member of the Group
- d) The Insured Member's death.
- e) The date on which the Policy lapses
- f) Written request by the Master Policyholder to discontinue the policy on at least 30 days prior notice

C.2 Actively at Work Clause

The Members of the group at the time of admission to the scheme and who are actively at work will be covered subject to satisfying the "Actively at work" condition, which is defined as follows:

An Employee is "Actively at work" means the Member/Employee should not have remained absent or availed of leave of absence on the grounds of ill health, sickness, maternity leave or disability for a continuous period of 10 days or more in the year preceding his admission into the scheme or should not have remained absent from work because of ill health, sickness, maternity leave or disability as at the Policy Effective Date.

No cover will be provided to those who are not "Actively at Work" on the effective date of coverage of the Group Master Policy. Cover up to FCL will be considered from the date of their joining duty subject to submission of Declaration of good health form (DOGH) and if the answers to all the questions in DOGH are negative. If answer to any of the questions in DOGH is positive, then cover will be considered subject to underwriting based on Medical Examination.

C.3 Benefit Payable on Death

Upon death, including death due to suicide, of an Insured Member the Company will pay the Base Sum Assured (Base SA) to the Claimant. If an Insured Member's death occurs during the Grace Period, the death benefit will be payable, only if the Premium due for the Policy has been paid by the Master Policyholder before the end of the Grace Period.

In case the premium is collected by the Master Policyholder and for some reason it does not reach the insurer within the grace period, then after the grace period the risk cover is available to the members, if the group members insured can prove that he/she had paid the premium and secured a proper receipt leading the insurer to believe that he/she is duly insured.

If the staggered monthly payout death benefit payout option has been opted for at inception of the policy, the death benefit will be 5.25% of the Base SA payable monthly for a period of 20 months following the date of death.

C.4 Benefit Payable on Accidental Death

Only applicable in case You have opted for 'Gold Option 1' or 'Platinum' Benefit Option

Upon death due to Accident of an Insured Member, immediately or within 180 days from the date of the Accident, the Company will pay the Accidental Death Benefit Sum Assured (ADB SA) as lump sum benefit to the Claimant. The claim due to Accidental death, where death happens within 180 days of occurrence of the accident but beyond the coverage term, will be honored. On payment of the above benefit, the cover shall cease and no further benefits are payable.

The ADB SA can be chosen independently of the Base SA (but not exceeding Base SA) and on accidental death, ADB SA is paid in addition to the base SA.

C.5 Benefit Payable on Accidental Dismemberment

Only applicable in case You have opted for 'Gold Option 2' or 'Platinum' Benefit Option

Upon Loss of Limbs due to Accident of an Insured Member, immediately or within 180 days from the date of the Accident, the Company will pay the Accidental Dismemberment Benefit Sum Assured (ADmB SA) as lump sum benefit to the Insured Member. The claim due to Accidental Dismemberment, where dismemberment happens within 180 days of occurrence of the accident but beyond the coverage term, will be honored. On payment of the above benefit, the cover under the Accidental Dismemberment Benefit ceases and other benefits under the selected Benefit Option shall continue.

The ADmB SA can be chosen independently of the Base SA (but not exceeding Base SA) and on dismemberment due to an accident, ADmB SA is paid in addition to the Base SA.

C.6 Benefit Payable on Maturity

There is no Maturity Benefit or any kind of survival Benefit payable to the Insured Member on Coverage Expiry Date.

C.7 Payment of Policy Premium

Premium are payable to the company on the due dates as specified in the Schedule. If the Premium due is not received in full by end of Grace Period, the Policy shall automatically lapse without any value at the end of Grace Period.

In case the premium is collected by the Master Policyholder and for some reason it does not reach the insurer within the grace period, then after the grace period the risk cover is available to the members, if the group members insured can prove that he/she had paid the premium and secured a proper receipt leading the insurer to believe that he/she is duly insured.

If any Eligible Member becomes an Insured Member during the Policy Year, a pro-rata Premium is payable for that Eligible Member to provide coverage for the period from Effective Date of Coverage to next Premium Due Date. The Master Policyholder understands and agrees that the Coverage of an Insured Member shall not commence until the Company has received and realized the full Premium due in respect of such Insured Member.

C.8 Grace Period

If for any insured member, premium is not paid by the Master Policyholder or the Insured Member itself, a grace period of 30 days (15 days for monthly mode) will be applicable for that member within which the Master Policyholder or member will have to pay the due premium.

If the due Premium is not received before the expiry of the grace period from the Premium due date, then the insurance cover to respective members will cease and no benefits shall be payable.

Any claim shall not be rejected solely on the grounds that insured member has paid the Premium but the Master Policyholder has not remitted the premium to the Company (Bandhan Life Insurance Limited).

- If the insured event occurs during the Grace Period, Outstanding premiums will be recovered from the claim amount. Outstanding Premiums in this context means “the premiums that were due but unpaid till the date of occurrence of the insured event
- The Policy will be in force during the Grace Period.

C.9 Renewal of the Policy

The Policy is an annual contract which expires on every Annual Renewal Date unless renewed. The Company reserves the right to accept/decline such renewal and to specify the terms and conditions and Premium payable on renewal.

The Master Policyholder shall provide the Company with updated Membership Register at least [30] days before the Annual Renewal Date. Based on the details provided, the Company will send written notice to the Master Policyholder about the Premium payable.

Part D

D.1 Free Look Option

If the Master Policyholder/Insured Member] is not satisfied with any of the terms and conditions of the policy or otherwise and has not made any claim, the Master Policyholder/ Insured Member may request the company for the cancellation of the policy or certificate of insurance within 30 days from date of receipt of policy or certificate of insurance , whether received electronically or otherwise.

On cancellation of the policy within the free-look period, the Company shall refund premiums paid, subject to deduction of the proportionate risk premium for the period on cover and the expense incurred by the Company for medical examination (if any) and stamp duty. The policy will terminate on payment of this amount and all rights, benefits and interests under this policy will stand extinguished.

D.2 Discontinuance of Policy Premium

If the Policy Premium due remains unpaid even after the expiry of Grace Period from the date of unpaid Policy Premium, the Policy will lapse with effect from the Due Date of the first unpaid Policy Premium (“Lapse Date”) and no benefit is payable in case of death of any Insured Member.

In case if any unforeseen event occurs during the grace period, the benefit payable as defined earlier will be reduced by the level of outstanding premiums as at the date of occurrence of the event.

Outstanding premium in the above context means the premiums that were due but unpaid till the date of occurrence of the insured event

D.3 Revival of the Policy

Revival is available up to 3 months from the due date of first unpaid Premium but within the policy term of one year. There shall be no revival unless:

- a) The Master Policyholder gives the Company written request for revival and proposed date of Revival.
- b) The Company agrees to revive the Policy, for which purpose the Master Policyholder shall comply with any requests for information and documentation made by the Company.
- c) The Master Policyholder makes payment of all outstanding Premiums due from the last date of receipt of Premium to the proposed date of revival.

The revival of the Policy shall only be effective from the date on which the Company has issued a written endorsement confirming the revival of the Policy. The Master Policyholder understands and agrees that there is no obligation on the Company to revive the Policy or to revive it on the same terms and the revival is subject to the underwriting requirements of the Company as applicable from time to time. No interest will be charged on revival of the lapsed policy.

D.4 Surrender Benefit

In case the Master Policyholder surrenders the Policy, an Insured Member can request the Company in writing to continue the policy as an individual policy for the outstanding term as per the certificate of insurance issued to the member, wherever applicable in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Policy.

For Members who don't wish to continue the cover in such cases, the unexpired premium in lieu of such lives shall be payable as the surrender value. No surrender value is applicable for monthly mode policies.

Unexpired Premium =

(Total Premiums Received minus Stamp Fee minus Medical Expenses incurred by the company) *

(Balance number of days to the earlier of the next premium due date or the next renewal date/N)

Where,

N = 365 days for yearly premium payment mode

N = 182 days for half-yearly premium payment mode

N = 91 days for quarterly premium payment mode

Total Premiums Received is premium received excluding any Goods and Services Tax and other applicable cess.

D.5 Loans

Any other matter resulting from the violation of provisions of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended from time to time, or the regulations, circulars, guidelines or instructions issued by IRDAI from time to time or the terms and conditions of the policy contract, in so far as they relate to issues mentioned herein above.

The Ombudsman shall act as a counsellor and mediator to the matters specified above provided there is written consent of the parties to the dispute.

You or your legal heirs, nominee or assignee can make a complaint in writing to the Insurance Ombudsman within whose territorial jurisdiction the residential address or place of residence of the complainant is located. The complaint shall be in writing, duly signed by You or your legal heirs, nominee or assignee and shall state clearly the name and address of the complainant, the name of the insurer against whom the complaint is made, the facts giving rise to the complaint, supported by documents, the nature and extent of the loss caused to the complainant and the relief sought from the Insurance Ombudsman.

No complaint to the Insurance Ombudsman shall lie unless—

(a) the complainant makes a written representation to the insurer named in the complaint and—

- (i) either the insurer had rejected the complaint; or
- (ii) the complainant had not received any reply within a period of one month after the insurer received his representation; or
- (iii) the complainant is not satisfied with the reply given to him by the insurer;

(b) The complaint is made within one year—

- (i) after the order of the insurer rejecting the representation is received; or
- (ii) after receipt of decision of the insurer which is not to the satisfaction of the complainant;
- (iii) after expiry of a period of one month from the date of sending the written representation to the insurer if the insurer named fails to furnish reply to the complainant.

No complaint before the Insurance Ombudsman shall be maintainable on the same subject matter on which proceedings are pending before or disposed of by any court or consumer forum or arbitrator.

Section 38 - Assignment and Transfer of Insurance Policies

Assignment or transfer of a life insurance policy is as below in accordance with Section 38 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time. The extant provisions in this regard are as follows:

1. This policy may be transferred/assigned, wholly or in part, with or without consideration.
2. An Assignment may be effected in a policy by an endorsement upon the policy itself or by a separate instrument under notice to the Insurer.
3. The instrument of assignment should indicate the fact of transfer or assignment and the reasons for the assignment or transfer, antecedents of the assignee and terms on which assignment is made.
4. The assignment must be signed by the transferor or assignor or duly authorized agent and attested by at least one witness.
5. The transfer of assignment shall not be operative as against an insurer until a notice in writing of the transfer or assignment and either the said endorsement or instrument itself or copy thereof certified to be correct by both transferor and transferee or their duly authorised agents have been delivered to the insurer.
6. Fee to be paid for assignment or transfer can be specified by the Authority through Regulations.
7. On receipt of notice with fee, the insurer should Grant a written acknowledgement of receipt of notice. Such notice shall be conclusive evidence against the insurer of duly receiving the notice.
8. If the insurer maintains one or more places of business, such notices shall be delivered only at the place where the policy is being serviced.
9. The insurer may accept or decline to act upon any transfer or assignment or endorsement, if it has sufficient reasons to believe that it is
 - a. not bonafide or
 - b. not in the interest of the policyholder, or
 - c. not in public interest or
 - d. is for the purpose of trading of the insurance policy.
10. Before refusing to act upon endorsement, the Insurer should record the reasons in writing and communicate the same in writing to Policyholder within 30 days from the date of policyholder giving a notice of transfer or assignment.
11. In case of refusal to act upon the endorsement by the Insurer, any person aggrieved by the refusal may prefer a claim to IRDAI within 30 days of receipt of the refusal letter from the Insurer.
12. The priority of claims of persons interested in an insurance policy would depend on the date on which the notices of assignment or transfer is delivered to the insurer; where there are more than one instruments of transfer or assignment, the priority will depend on dates of delivery of such notices. Any dispute in this regard as to priority should be referred to Authority.
13. Every assignment or transfer shall be deemed to be absolute assignment or transfer and the assignee or transferee shall be deemed to be absolute assignee or transferee, except
 - a. where assignment or transfer is subject to terms and conditions of transfer or assignment OR
 - b. where the transfer or assignment is made upon condition that
 - i. the proceeds under the policy shall become payable to policyholder or nominee(s) in the event of assignee or transferee dying before the insured OR
 - ii. the insured surviving the term of the policy

Such conditional assignee will not be entitled to obtain a loan on policy or surrender the policy. This provision will prevail notwithstanding any law or custom having force of law which is contrary to the above position.

14. In other cases, the insurer shall, subject to terms and conditions of assignment, recognize the transferee or assignee named in the notice as the absolute transferee or assignee and such person
 - a. shall be subject to all liabilities and equities to which the transferor or assignor was subject to at the date of transfer or assignment and
 - b. may institute any proceedings in relation to the policy
 - c. obtain loan under the policy or surrender the policy without obtaining the consent of the transferor or assignor or making him a party to the proceedings
15. Any rights and remedies of an assignee or transferee of a life insurance policy under an assignment or transfer effected before commencement of the Insurance Laws (Amendment) Ordinance, 2014 shall not be affected by this section.

[Disclaimer: This is not a comprehensive list as mentioned in Insurance Act, 1938 (as amended from time to time), but only a simplified version prepared for general information. Policy Holders are advised to refer to the Act for complete and accurate details.]

Annexure: 2

Section 39 - Nomination

Nomination of a life insurance Policy is as below in accordance with Section 39 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time. The extant provisions in this regard are as follows:

1. The policyholder of a life insurance on his own life may nominate a person or persons to whom money secured by the policy shall be paid in the event of his death.
2. Where the nominee is a minor, the policyholder may appoint any person to receive the money secured by the policy in the event of policyholder's death during the minority of the nominee. The manner of appointment to be laid down by the Insurer.
3. Nomination can be made at any time before the maturity of the policy.
4. Nomination may be incorporated in the text of the policy itself or may be endorsed on the policy communicated to the insurer and can be registered by the insurer in the records relating to the Policy.
5. Nomination can be cancelled or changed at any time before policy matures, by an endorsement or a further endorsement or a will as the case may be.
6. A notice in writing of Change or Cancellation of nomination must be delivered to the insurer for the insurer to be liable to such nominee. Otherwise, insurer will not be liable if a bonafide payment is made to the person named in the text of the policy or in the registered records of the insurer.
7. Fee to be paid to the insurer for registering change or cancellation of a nomination can be specified by the Authority through Regulations.
8. On receipt of notice with fee, the insurer should grant a written acknowledgement to the policyholder of having registered a nomination or cancellation or change thereof.
9. A transfer or assignment made in accordance with Section 38 shall automatically cancel the nomination except in case of assignment to the insurer or other transferee or assignee for purpose of loan or against security or its reassignment after repayment. In such case, the nomination will not get cancelled to the extent of insurer's or transferee's or assignee's interest in the policy. The nomination will get revived on repayment of the loan.
10. The right of any creditor to be paid out of the proceeds of any policy of life insurance shall not be affected by the nomination.
11. In case of nomination by policyholder whose life is insured, if the nominees die before the policyholder, the proceeds are payable to policyholder or his heirs or legal representatives or holder of succession certificate.
12. In case nominee(s) survive the person whose life is insured, the amount secured by the policy shall be paid to such survivor(s).
13. Where the policyholder whose life is insured nominates his
 - a. parents or
 - b. spouse or
 - c. children or
 - d. spouse and children
 - e. or any of them

the nominees are beneficially entitled to the amount payable by the insurer to the policyholder unless it is proved that policyholder could not have conferred such beneficial title on the nominee having regard to the nature of his title

14. If nominee(s) die after the policyholder but before his share of the amount secured under the policy is paid, the share of the expired nominee(s) shall be payable to the heirs or legal representative of the nominee or holder of succession certificate of such nominee(s).
15. The provisions of sub-section 7 and 8 (13 and 14 above) shall apply to all life insurance policies maturing for payment after the amendment of Insurance Act, 1938 (i.e. 26.12.2014).
16. If policyholder dies after maturity but the proceeds and benefit of the policy has not been paid to him because of his death, his nominee(s) shall be entitled to the proceeds and benefit of the policy.
17. The provisions of Section 39 are not applicable to any life insurance policy to which Section 6 of Married Women's Property Act, 1874 applies or has at any time applied except where before or after Insurance Act 1938 (as amended from time to time), a nomination is made in favour of spouse or children or spouse and children whether or not on the face of the policy it is mentioned that it is made under Section 39. Where nomination is intended to be made to spouse or children or spouse and children under Section 6 of MWP Act, it should be specifically mentioned on the policy. In such a case only, the provisions of Section 39 will not apply.

[Disclaimer: This is not a comprehensive list as mentioned in Insurance Act 1938 (as amended from time to time), but only a simplified version prepared for general information. Policy Holders are advised to refer to the Act for complete and accurate details.]

Annexure: 3

Section 45 – Policy shall not be called in question on the ground of mis-statement after three years

Provisions regarding Policy not being called into question in terms of Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended from time to time are as follows:

1. No Policy of Life Insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after expiry of 3 yrs from
 - a. the date of issuance of policy or
 - b. the date of commencement of risk or
 - c. the date of revival of policy or
 - d. the date of rider to the policywhichever is later.
2. On the ground of fraud, a policy of Life Insurance may be called in question within 3 years from
 - a. the date of issuance of policy or
 - b. the date of commencement of risk or
 - c. the date of revival of policy or
 - d. the date of rider to the policy whichever is later.

For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which such decision is based.

3. Fraud means any of the following acts committed by insured or by his agent, with the intent to deceive the insurer or to induce the insurer to issue a life insurance policy:
 - a. The suggestion, as a fact of that which is not true and which the insured does not believe to be true;
 - b. The active concealment of a fact by the insured having knowledge or belief of the fact;
 - c. Any other act fitted to deceive; and
 - d. Any such act or omission as the law specifically declares to be fraudulent.
4. Mere silence is not fraud unless, depending on circumstances of the case, it is the duty of the insured or his agent keeping silence to speak or silence is in itself equivalent to speak.
5. No Insurer shall repudiate a life insurance Policy on the ground of Fraud, if the Insured / beneficiary can prove that the misstatement was true to the best of his knowledge and there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer. Onus of disproving is upon the policyholder, if alive, or beneficiaries.
6. Life insurance Policy can be called in question within 3 years on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to expectancy of life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document basis which policy was issued or revived or rider issued. For this, the insurer should communicate in writing to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, as applicable, mentioning the ground and materials on which decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based.
7. In case repudiation is on ground of mis-statement and not on fraud, the premium collected on policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or legal representative or nominee or assignees of insured, within a period of 90 days from the date of repudiation.
8. Fact shall not be considered material unless it has a direct bearing on the risk undertaken by the insurer. The onus is on insurer to show that if the insurer had been aware of the said fact, no life insurance policy would have been issued to the insured.
9. The insurer can call for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof of age of Life Assured. So, this Section will not be applicable for questioning age or adjustment based on proof of age submitted subsequently.
